

Drive Thru COVID-19 Testing Offered in Delta County

For Immediate Release,
June 1, 2020, 4:00 PM, CST

In a partnership between the Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS), Texas Division of Emergency Management (TDEM), Texas Military Department (TMD), the local Regional Advisory Councils (RAC/HPP Providers), the Texas Emergency Medical Task Force (TX EMTF) and the Delta County Office of Emergency Management, free mobile COVID-19 testing will be offered again in Delta County on Monday, June 8th at the Cooper ISD Elementary School's west parking lot from 9AM - 5PM. This testing is part of the initiative from Governor Abbott to increase COVID-19 testing statewide. The Mobile Testing Teams will be focusing on both rural areas that have not had access to testing and identified 'Hot-Spots' where additional testing capability is needed to augment what is currently in place.

Important Registration Information:

- There is no cost for the test received at one of these sites.
- All tests will be scheduled in advance and patients will be given appointments for their test.
- Residents may not be able to register until late Tuesday evening or early Wednesday morning.

Residents may register to be tested via phone or online:
